

Marin

SEPTEMBER 2011

SAVOR TAHOE

Calling all foodies: Get ready for the second annual Lake Tahoe Restaurant Week, October 2-9. The restaurants vary in cuisine and price point but are all hand-selected due to their popularity. Each one will offer three-course, prix-fixe menus for $20-$40 per person. This year the lineup includes Manzanita Lake Tahoe (Ritz-Carlton), Wolfdale's Cuisine Unique in Tahoe City, Lone Eagle Grille (Hyatt in Incline Village), Soule Domain on the north side, PlumpJack in Squaw and Edgewood Restaurant near the state line. tahoe-restaurantweek.com

3 Suite Deals Around the Bay

Have the travel bug but don't want to venture too far? These three great packages range in location from the city to the wine country.

1 San Francisco Fling

Looking for an ultimate San Francisco romantic getaway? Consider Hotel Palomar's "Date Night," which includes an executive king room (free movie rental of Date Night); a mixology cocktail kit; a $50 credit at the award-winning, on-site restaurant Fifth Floor; and use of DBC City Bikes in the morning. Starting at $259; hotelpalomar.com

2 Fun in Napa

Visit downtown Napa for a bit of uptown fun. The lovingly restored historic Uptown Theater attracts A-listers on a regular basis. Combine dinner, lodging and a show with the "A Night in Napa to Remember" package, including lunch or dinner options at French Laundry, La Toque or Morimoto, and lodging at Avia Hotel, Villagio Resort and Spa or the Meritage Resort. Starting at $699; uptowntheater.com

3 Sonoma Celebration

Head up to Sonoma to celebrate The Lodge at Sonoma Renaissance Resort & Spa's 10-year anniversary with its "Delightful Decade" package. Includes a luxury guestroom and breakfast. Starting at $259; thelodgeatsonoma.com